

CONFIDENTIALITY EXPLANATION

It is our belief that change must begin within ourselves as we look to Christ for the power to change. Therefore, Life In Abundance asks you to approach the coaching and encouragement process as an opportunity for personal change and spiritual growth.

We ask that you refrain from the temptation of focusing on others, and instead we ask you to focus on what changes God desires to make in your life, in the midst of your circumstances. Throughout the process, you are encouraged to pray and read the Bible daily, as well as trust in God's leadership in your life. Your coach will also be praying for you as you seek to move through this process.

It is the policy of Life In Abundance that any information you share with the coach will be carefully guarded and ethically cannot be disclosed without your written consent. The following exceptions are to be adhered to by all healthcare professionals, as well as professional coaches according to state law.

- 1) It is required by law that all coaches have a duty to warn the appropriate authorities if a client intends to make harmful, dangerous, or criminal actions against themselves or someone around them.
- 2) Professional coaches are also mandated to report any incidences of "reasonable suspected child abuse" (physical or sexual), elder abuse, or suicide attempts.
